SC dismisses plea against mandatory telugu requirement for Telangana Civil Judges

New Delhi, April 28 (UNI) : The Supreme Court on Monday dismissed a plea challenging the Telangana High Court order that upheld a state rule mandating proficiency in the Telugu language for appointment as Civil Judges, without providing an alternative option for Urdu speakers.

A Bench comprising Justice B.R. Gavai and Justice A.G. Masih heard an appeal filed by petitioner Mohd Shujath Hussain against the Telangana High Court's verdict, which had dismissed his challenge to the constitutionality of certain provisions in the Telangana Judicial (Service and Cadre) Rules, 2023.

Senior Advocate Salman Khurshid, appearing for the petitioner, argued that excluding Urdu, which has historical and official significance in Telangana, was discriminatory. However, the Bench was not persuaded.

"Not excluded. (The rule) only states that Telugu is also needed. Sorry, cannot entertain," Justice Gavai remarked, refusing to entertain the petition.

The Supreme Court thus upheld the Telangana government's decision to require Telugu proficiency for candidates seeking judicial appointments.

The Court reiterated that the rule did not exclude Urdu speakers but merely imposed an additional requirement of Telugu proficiency. Earlier, the Telangana High Court had rejected Hussain's plea, observing that the decision to mandate Telugu knowledge was a policy decision by the State, taking into account that Telugu is the most widely spoken language in Telangana.

The Telangana Judicial (Service and Cadre) Rules, 2023, which came into effect in June last year, require judicial service aspirants to be conversant in Telugu. The exam scheme also includes a translation component between English and Telugu.

The petitioner had contended that since Urdu has been recognized as the second official language under the Telangana Official Languages Act, 1966, candidates proficient in Urdu should also have been accommodated. However, both the High Court and the Supreme Court concluded that the State's language policy decision could not be interfered with in this context.

Akhilesh lacked will to work, power to decide: Aseem Arun

Lucknow, April 28 (UNI) : Uttar Pradesh's Minister of State for Social Welfare (Independent Charge) Aseem Arun on Monday said that the Yogi government's development model embodies 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas'.

In a statement issued here, Arun described Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath's bulldozer as a symbol of both strength and strict governance, enabling rapid infrastructure growth while cracking down on illegal encroachments.

He said that the CM takes decisive, well-thought-out actions, unlike Samajwadi Party (SP) chief Akhilesh Yadav, whom he accused of lacking both the will and strength to govern effectively. He said that the government is working for all religions and castes without favouring any particular community.

Launching a scathing attack on Akhilesh, the Minister highlighted the atrocities faced by deprived sections during his tenure and praised the Yogi government's focus on development and youth welfare. He said Akhilesh's narrow mindset and discriminatory policies led to his ouster by the public.

Recalling the SP chief's tenure between 2012 to 2017, he said atrocities against Scheduled Castes and Backward Classes under the SP government are still fresh in public memory. He accused Akhilesh of insulting Baba Saheb Bhimrao Ambedkar by changing the name of a medical college in Kannauj and rejecting a statue of Lord Buddha.

Arun also alleged that Akhilesh disrespected Mahamaya by defacing a district named after her. He demanded that Akhilesh explain his intentions to the public and apologise.

He said Akhilesh is now trying to mislead the SC and the poor, but the public will not be deceived. He also pointed out that Akhilesh had halted scholarships for SC children, which the Yogi government later restored.

The Minister pointed out that the unemployment rate, which stood at 13–14 percent during the SP regime, has dropped to 3 percent under the Yogi government. He said the government not only provided government jobs but also promoted youth entrepreneurship through interest-free loans under programs like 'CM Yuva'.

H i g h l i g h t i n g transparency in police recruitment, he said that during Akhilesh's tenure, corruption marred recruitment, citing the example where 56 out of 86 UPPCS candidates came from a single caste. In contrast, he said, recruitment under the Yogi government are fair and transparent, with the recent PCS J exam completed in a record eight months. Arun said that under the leadership of Prime Minister Modi and CM Yogi, UP is on the path of rapid development, working for all sections of society without vote-bank considerations. He asserted that UP will play a key role in making India the world's third-largest economy.

SC slams Centre over delay in cashless treatment scheme for road accident victims

New Delhi, April 28 (UNI) : The Supreme Court on Monday came down heavily on the Centre for the delay in implementing a cashless treatment scheme for motor accident victims, questioning the government's seriousness towards the welfare of the common man.

"You are constructing huge highways, but people are dying there because of lack of facilities," the Court observed.

A bench, comprising Justices Abhay S Oka and Ujjal Bhuyan, expressed displeasure that despite its January eight order, the Centre had neither complied with the directive nor sought an extension of time.

The Court noted that although Section 164A of the Motor Vehicles Act, which mandates interim relief to accident victims, came into force on April one, 2022, the government had not yet framed the necessary scheme.

"You are in contempt. You have not bothered to seek extension of time. What is this going on? You tell us when will you frame the scheme? You don't care for your own statutes. This is one of the welfare provisions. Three years have passed since this provision came into place. Are you really working for the welfare of the common man?" the bench asked sharply.

Questioning the Ministry of Road Transport further, the Court remarked, "Can you be so casual? Are you not serious about this provision? People are dying in road accidents. You are constructing huge highways, but there is no facility for timely treatment. There is no scheme for golden hour treatment. What is the use of constructing so many highways?"

The golden hour, as defined under Section 2(12-A) of the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, refers to the critical one-hour period following a traumatic injury when timely medical intervention can save lives.

Summoning the Secretary of the Ministry of Road Transport, the Court sought an explanation for the delay. The Secretary informed the bench that although a draft scheme was prepared, progress was stalled due to objections raised by the General Insurance Council (GIC), which insisted on verifying insurance policy details before proceeding with treatment.

Recording the Centre's submission, the Court noted that the scheme would be notified within a week and directed that it be placed on record by May nine. The matter has been posted for further hearing on May 13.

Earlier, on January eight, the Apex Court had directed the Centre to formulate a scheme to provide cashless medical treatment to motor accident victims during the golden hour period.

Referring to Section 162(2) of the Motor Vehicles Act, the Court had emphasized that delays caused by financial or procedural hurdles often cost precious lives and that the Centre had a statutory obligation to frame the scheme to protect the Right to Life under Article 21 of the Constitution.

NC asks New Delhi to capitalize on sentiment in Kashmir against terrorism

Srinagar, April 28 (UNI) : J&K National Conference Additional General Secretary Sheikh Mustafa Kamal Monday asked New Delhi to capitalize on sentiment in Kashmir against terrorism .

Minister Uttam dismisses KCR's criticism of Congress government

Nalgonda, April 28 (UNI) : Dismissing Bharat Rashtira Samithi President and former Chief Minister K.Chandrashekhara Rao's remarks against the congress party during the BRS Silver jubilee celebrations at Elkathurthy in Warangal district on Sunday, Telangana Irrigation and Civil Supplies Minister Capt. N Uttam Kumar Reddy on Monday said that the state government was working sincerely and tirelessly to serve the people of the state.

KCR was trying to mislead the people after ruining the state during his 10 years of rule, he alleged. Speaking alongside Minister Komatireddy Venkata Reddy and other leaders at the foundation-laying ceremony for the additional block at Nalgonda Collectorate here, the Minister said that the BRS President , who pushed Telangana into a deep financial crisis, was now shamelessly attacking a Congress government that was working hard to repair the damage.

"KCR destroyed Telangana in ten years. Now he is targeting those who are working sincerely to rebuild the state," he said.Uttam said the Congress government lost nearly five to six months because of elections after coming to power but had not wasted a single day since."Since taking oath as a Minister on December 7, 2023, I have not taken even a single day's leave. We are working round the clock to serve the people," Reddy said.The Minister pointed out that the BRS government spent Rs 1.81 lakh crore on irrigation projects but failed to bring any significant increase in ayacut.He said the Kaleshwaram project, for which nearly Rs 1 lakh crore was spent, turned out to be a disaster. "The Medigadda, Annaram, and Sundilla barrages collapsed during the BRS regime due to poor design, poor construction, and poor operation and maintenance. The BRS leaders were more interested in commissions than in serving farmers," Uttam alleged.Reddy said the Congress government was committed to completing all pending irrigation projects in a transparent and honest manner.He also accused the former Chief Minister of betraying Telangana's farmers by agreeing to an unfair Krishna water allocation. "KCR agreed to just 299 TMCs of Krishna waters during bifurcation, causing huge injustice to Telangana. Today, the Congress government is fighting to secure Telangana's rightful share in Krishna River," the Minister said.

Taking a strong swipe at the BRS President Uttam said, "Since losing power, KCR has not attended even a single session of the Telangana Assembly. He is afraid to face the elected representatives. But he comes to public meetings like in Warangal to spread lies and cover up his failures."

Highlighting the achievements of the Congress government, he said Telangana was on track to achieve the highest paddy production in the country."In 2024-25, Telangana will produce a total of 281 lakh metric tonnes of paddy -153.5 LMT in Vanakalam and 70.13 LMT in Rabi. Despite the collapse of Kaleshwaram structures, we are achieving record production," Reddy added.

Uttam said the Congress government was focusing on completing irrigation projects, expanding welfare schemes, and boosting agriculture production, while KCR and the BRS were busy spreading lies to hide their failures.

"The people of Telangana know the truth. They have already rejected KCR once and will not be misled again," he asserted.

The awards were presented in the presence of industry leaders, and senior ASME leadership.

The winning teams will now advance to an international ISHOW bootcamp, where they will receive further guidance in refining their solutions and scaling their operations.

They will also become part of ASME's expanding global ecosystem of social entrepreneurs, opening doors to international collaborations, technical partnerships, and greater funding opportunities.

"Kazi" and "Sharia Courts" are not recognised under Indian Law, Rules SC

New Delhi, April 28 (UNI) : The Supreme Court on Monday reiterated that entities referred to as 'Courts of Kazi', 'Darul Kaja', 'Sharia Courts', or any similar bodies are not recognised under Indian law, and their decisions hold no legal enforceability.

A two-judge Bench comprising Justices Sudhanshu Dhulia and Ahsanuddin Amanullah recalled the 2014 precedent set in Vishwa Lochan Madan v Union of India, which had made it clear that Shariat courts and fatwas have no legal sanction.

The Court was hearing an appeal filed by a woman challenging the Allahabad High Court's affirmation of a Family Court decision that denied her maintenance. The Family Court had based its findings, in part, on a compromise agreement presented before a 'Court of Kazi'.

Writing for the Bench, Justice Amanullah remarked: "Bodies styled as 'Court of Kazi', 'Darul Kaja', or 'Sharia Court', whatever their label, have no legal standing. As previously held in Vishwa Lochan Madan, any order or directive issued by them is not binding, nor can it be enforced by coercive means. Such decisions may only have relevance if the parties voluntarily accept them, and even then, only insofar as they do not violate any existing law."In this case, the appellant-wife and the respondent-husband, both entering into their second marriage, tied the knot on September 24, 2002, following Islamic customs.

In 2005, the husband initiated divorce proceedings before a 'Court of Kazi' in Bhopal, which were dismissed after a compromise was reached on November 22, 2005.

However, in 2008, the husband again filed for divorce before a 'Darul Kaja'. Around the same time, the wife approached the Family Court seeking maintenance under Section 125 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

Later, in 2009, the husband formalized a talaqnama following the divorce granted by the 'Darul Kaja'.

The Family Court dismissed the wife's maintenance petition, concluding that she herself was the cause of the marital dispute and subsequent separation, and that the husband had not deserted her. The court also reasoned that, since this was a second marriage for both parties, there was no possibility of dowry demands.

The Supreme Court strongly disapproved of this logic, observing: "The assumption that second marriages automatically eliminate the risk of dowry demands is both speculative and without legal basis. Such reasoning has no place in judicial findings."The apex court also rejected the Family Court's reliance on the compromise deed. It found that the compromise recorded in 2005 contained no admission of fault by the appellant-wife. Instead, it merely reflected the parties' mutual decision to live together peacefully. Calling the Family Court's decision "unsustainable," the Supreme Court noted, "The dismissal of the appellant's claim was based on misinterpretation of the compromise, and lacks any solid foundation."

India reduced poverty levels with targeted welfare schemes, economic reforms

India has made substantial strides in reducing poverty levels with targeted welfare schemes, and economic reforms, according to the latest report by the World Bank.

In its Spring 2025 Poverty and Equity Brief, the World Bank acknowledged India's decisive fight against poverty. According to the report, India has lifted 171 million people out of extreme poverty.

“This achievement is a testament to the Government of India’s commitment to inclusive development, focusing on both rural and urban areas. Through targeted welfare schemes, economic reforms, and increased access to essential services, India has made substantial strides in reducing poverty levels,” the report said.

It noted a sharp reduction in extreme poverty in both rural and urban areas in the country.

While extreme poverty fell from 18.4 per cent in 2011-12 to 2.8 per cent in 2022-23 in rural areas, urban centres saw a reduction of extreme poverty from 10.7 per cent to 1.1 per cent over the same period.

The gap between rural and urban poverty shrunk from 7.7 percentage points to 1.7 percentage points, with an annual decline rate of 16 per cent between 2011-12 and 2022-23.

Notably, India also made strong gains in reducing poverty at the lower-middle-income level.

Rural poverty declined from 69 per cent to 32.5 per cent, while urban poverty dropped from 43.5 per cent to 17.2 per cent.

The rural-urban poverty gap narrowed from 25 to 15 percentage points, with a 7 per cent annual decline between 2011-12 and 2022-23.

The report also noted the role of the five most populous states -- Uttar Pradesh, Maharashtra, Bihar, West Bengal, and Madhya Pradesh -- in reducing extreme poverty.

In 2011-12, these states represented 65 per cent of India’s extreme poor. By 2022-23, these contributed to two-thirds of the overall decline in extreme poverty.

In addition, the report stated a rise in employment, especially among women, and a reduction in multidimensional poverty, pointing to broader improvements in living standards.

The Poverty and Equity Briefs from the World Bank highlight trends in poverty, shared prosperity, and inequality for over 100 developing countries.

Published twice a year for the Spring and Annual Meetings of the World Bank Group and the International Monetary Fund, these briefs offer a snapshot of a country’s poverty and inequality context, ensuring poverty reduction remains a global priority.

Advancements in Endoscopic Microsurgery and CyberKnife Radiosurgery for Brain Tumors

(Standard Post Bureau)

The field of neurosurgery has undergone a revolutionary transformation over the past decade, particularly with the emergence of advanced endoscopic microsurgical techniques and the evolution of radiosurgical technologies such as CyberKnife. These innovations have significantly enhanced the precision, safety, and efficacy of brain tumor treatment, offering patients new hope with fewer complications and faster recovery.

Traditionally, brain tumor surgery involved large craniotomies—removal of a significant portion of the skull—to access and remove the tumor. While effective, such procedures were associated with considerable risks including infections, blood loss, and prolonged recovery times. With the introduction of endoscopic microsurgery, the approach has become minimally invasive, involving the use of high-definition endoscopes inserted through small openings, either via natural orifices like the nose or through tiny incisions in the skull.

This technique has proven especially effective in the treatment of pituitary adenomas, craniopharyngiomas, colloid cysts, intraventricular tumors, and other deep-seated brain lesions. Using angled lenses and precise instrumentation, we can now reach regions of the brain that were once considered high-risk or inoperable, all while preserving surrounding healthy tissues.

Endoscopic endonasal surgery for tumors located at the base of the skull are performed through the nasal cavity, eliminating external scars and significantly reducing hospital stay. Patients typically experience faster recovery, reduced postoperative pain, and a quicker return to normal activities.

Another significant advancement has been the integration of neuronavigation systems—akin to a GPS for the brain—which guide the surgeon with real-time, 3D imaging. Combined with high-powered microscopes and fluorescence-guided techniques, we can achieve maximal tumor resection while minimizing the risk of neurological deficits.

While surgical resection remains the gold standard for many brain tumors, not all tumors are amenable to surgery. For lesions located in eloquent areas of the brain or for patients who are unfit for surgery due to age or comorbidities, CyberKnife radiosurgery offers a non-invasive, outpatient alternative.

CyberKnife is a revolutionary robotic radiosurgery system that delivers highly focused beams of radiation to the tumor with sub-millimeter accuracy. Unlike conventional radiation therapy, which is delivered over multiple sessions, CyberKnife can often treat brain tumors in one to five sessions with minimal impact on surrounding tissues.

This technique is particularly effective for treating vestibular schwannomas (acoustic neuromas), meningiomas, brain metastases, arteriovenous malformations, and even recurrent or residual tumors following surgery. One of the standout features of CyberKnife is its ability to track the tumor in real time, adjusting the radiation beams as the patient moves slightly—this ensures continuous accuracy without the need for a rigid frame, offering unmatched patient comfort.

At Artemis Hospital, we have successfully treated hundreds of patients using CyberKnife, either as a standalone therapy or in conjunction with surgery. The synergy between microsurgical tumor debulking and radiosurgical precision allows us to optimize outcomes even in complex cases.

The integration of minimally invasive surgery with robotic radiosurgery represents the future of neuro-oncology. With continuous advancements in imaging, instrumentation, and intraoperative monitoring, we are now better equipped than ever to tackle tumors once deemed untreatable.

For patients and their families, these technologies translate into better quality of life, reduced hospitalization, and long-term disease control. The focus is no longer just on survival—but on healing with dignity, functionality, and minimal disruption to life.

Over 1.8 crore job applications, 3.1 lakh jobs posted, 92% surge in job applications by women for enterprise job roles

(Standard Post Bureau)

India's job market is surging ahead with renewed momentum in 2025, as revealed by Apna's latest “India at Work – Q1 2025” report. The platform witnessed a record-breaking 1.81 crore job applications, a 30% increase from the previous year, reflecting India’s growing economic optimism and digital hiring boom across sectors.

Women’s participation in the workforce soared, with over 62 lakh applications—a 23% year-on-year jump. Notably, applications from women for enterprise roles doubled, marking a 92% surge. This growth was most pronounced in Tier 2 and 3 cities such as Chandigarh, Indore, and Jamshedpur, driven by flexible work options, gender-inclusive hiring, and expanded opportunities in sectors like BPO, finance, and HR.

Freshers also powered India’s employment engine, contributing over 66 lakh applications—a 46% YoY increase. With companies increasingly recruiting from beyond metro cities, emerging talent hubs like Rajkot, Warangal, and Meerut are now part of the mainstream hiring narrative.

On the supply side, Apna saw 3.1 lakh job postings, up 26% from Q1 2024. SMBs led the charge, posting over 2.1 lakh jobs, including 28,547 roles exclusively for women. Enterprise hiring rose sharply with companies like LIC, Paytm, Delhivery, and Flipkart creating over 1 lakh openings, expanding recruitment beyond metros and tapping into the national talent pool.

Reflecting on India’s evolving workforce, Nirmitt Parikh, Founder & CEO of Apna, shared: “When we launched Apna, we weren’t just building a jobs platform — we were building a movement to unlock access for every Indian, regardless of their pin code or past experience. In Q1 2025 too, we witnessed this vision materialize in ways we had always hoped for. From Delhi to Dehradun, Surat to Samastipur, we saw hiring become truly decentralized. Tier 2 and Tier 3 cities contributed over 40% of new users, with many of them showing double-digit growth in job applications. Applications from women for enterprise roles didn’t just rise, they saw a 92% leap. Fresher applications crossed 66 lakh. Enterprises scaled hiring into non-metro regions, and SMBs emerged as the largest job creators — not just in metros, but across 900+ cities. The hiring process itself is evolving too — with AI now matching candidates faster, improving conversion rates, and empowering job seekers to prepare smarter. We’re seeing people find not just any job, but the right job — faster than ever before. In just one quarter, over 1.81 crore job applications were submitted on Apna. That’s not just a statistic — it’s 1.81 crore stories of determination. From Tier 1 metros to the most remote Tier 3 towns, India is not just working — India is winning. And Apna is proud to be enabling that revolution.” India’s digital transformation continues to gain momentum, particularly in Tier 2 cities, where the demand for advanced tech talent is soaring. In Q1 2025, Apna recorded a remarkable 65.4% increase in job postings for Software/Web

Developer roles, alongside a 42.2% rise in fresher applications for these positions compared to the previous year. This surge highlights the growing need for specialized professionals in fields such as AI/ML, cybersecurity, business intelligence, and data-driven operations, as enterprises in these regions expand their digital capabilities.

While traditional tech hubs like Delhi-NCR, Bengaluru, and Mumbai maintain their dominance, cities such as Indore, Jaipur, Lucknow, Rajkot, and Warangal are rapidly emerging as key players in the tech hiring landscape. These cities have experienced a 30-50% year-on-year growth in tech job applications, driven by increased access to engineering talent, certifications, and stronger digital infrastructure.

The rise of remote-first work models has further enabled these cities to tap into a broader pool of tech professionals. With India’s digital economy on track to reach $1 trillion by 2030, the shift toward decentralized tech talent hubs is gaining momentum.

SC backs Allahabad HC's order in Shahi Idgah-Krishna Janmabhoomi case

New Delhi, April 28 (UNI) : The Supreme Court on Monday observed that the Allahabad High Court’s order allowing the Hindu side to amend their plaint and add the Archaeological Survey of India (ASI) as a party in the Shahi Idgah-Krishna Janmabhoomi dispute is prima facie correct. A Bench comprising Chief Justice of India (CJI) Sanjiv Khanna and Justice PV Sanjay Kumar made the remarks while hearing the appeal filed by the Muslim side challenging the High Court’s decision.

"One thing is clear. The amendment to the original plaint by the Hindu plaintiffs has to be allowed," the Bench remarked during the proceedings.

The Hindu parties had approached the High Court seeking to amend their original suit by claiming that the disputed structure was a protected monument under the ASI and, therefore, the protection under the Places of Worship (Special Provisions) Act, 1991 would not apply.

Consequently, they argued, the structure cannot continue as a mosque. They also sought to make ASI a party to the suit, which the High Court permitted in March 2024. The Muslim side then approached the Supreme Court against this order. Earlier, on April 4, the apex court had issued notice to the Hindu side on this appeal.

When the matter was taken up for hearing today, the Court observed that the Muslim side’s plea appeared "misconceived," with the Bench remarking, "This plea is absolutely wrong. The High Court should have allowed the amendment to add the parties to the suit."

The Court, however, granted time to the Muslim side to file their written statement and deferred further hearing.

In their plea before the High Court, the Hindu side asserted that a 1920 notification issued by the Lieutenant Governor of the United Province had declared the structure a protected monument under Section 3 of the Ancient Monument Preservation Act.

They argued that because of this historical status, the Places of Worship Act, 1991, which protects the status of religious places as they existed on August 15, 1947, would not apply. The Muslim side opposed the amendments, arguing that the Hindu plaintiffs were attempting to "wriggle out" of the bar imposed by the Places of Worship Act by introducing new claims. "The proposed amendments show that the Plaintiffs are attempting to negate the defence taken by the defendant that the suit is barred by the Places of Worship Act, 1991," they argued.

The Allahabad High Court on March 5 allowed the amendment and the addition of ASI as a party, prompting the appeal before the Supreme Court. The original dispute traces back to a civil suit filed by the Hindu side claiming that the Shahi Idgah mosque was constructed on the Krishna Janmabhoomi land. The suit was filed on behalf of the deity Bhagwan Shri Krishna Virajman and some Hindu devotees seeking removal of the mosque.

Housewife’s Death Gives new Life to Three Individuals

(Standard Post Bureau)

In an inspiring act of humanity, the family of a housewife, who passed away unexpectedly, donated her organs, giving new life to three individuals. Their courageous decision, made in the face of immense personal grief, has become a beacon of hope for many.

Kattike Narsibai (55), a resident of Bonkuru village in Gadwal district, Telangana, suffered a sudden and severe headache on April 25 and collapsed at home. She was rushed to a nearby hospital, where she fell into a coma. For advanced treatment, she was later shifted to KIMS Hospital in Kurnool.

After conducting thorough examinations, doctors at KIMS diagnosed a critical hemorrhage on the right side of her brain. Despite their relentless efforts to save her, she was declared brain dead on Saturday.

Following this, Dr. Rambabu and his team from AP Jeevandan, along with organ donation coordinators at KIMS Hospital, sensitized Narsibai’s family members about the significance of organ donation. With the wholehearted consent of her husband, son, and other family members, her liver and both kidneys were donated, offering a second chance at life to three critically ill patients. Speaking on the occasion, her husband and son expressed pride in their decision. "Even though we have lost the pillar of our family, it brings us comfort and pride that she continues to live on through others," they said emotionally.

The donated organs were swiftly transported to the recipients through a specially arranged Green Channel, with the cooperation of AP Jeevandan, Dr. Rambabu’s team, and the Kurnool district police department. AP Jeevandan committee members appreciated the family’s noble gesture, emphasizing that such acts of compassion have the power to transform lives and inspire communities.

Russia allocates $2mIn to UN Refugee Agency : Diplomat

United Nations, April 28 (UNI) : Russia contributed $2 million to the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR) last week, Russian Deputy Ambassador to the United Nations Maria Zabolotskaya said on Monday.

"Last week, Russia managed to allocate $2 million to support the activities of UNHCR," Zabolotskaya said during a UN Security Council meeting on refugees.

Zabolotskaya also recalled that approximately 5 million Ukrainians have left for Russia after Ukraine started shelling Donbas residential areas. The diplomat also called for accountability for migrants deaths in the Mediterranean Sea, which she said has turned into a "mass grave."

The UNHCR was established in 1950 by the UN General Assembly to help people worldwide who lost their homes after World War II. It provides assistance to rebuild refugees' lives and is a strong advocate for rights protections.

31 civilians killed by paramilitary forces in Sudan's Omdurman: Volunteer groups

Khartoum, April 28 (UNI) : At least 31 civilians were killed by the paramilitary Rapid Support Forces (RSF) in Omdurman, north of the Sudanese capital Khartoum, volunteer groups reported on Sunday.

"An RSF force carried out a horrific massacre, executing 31 people from the Al-Salha area, including underage children, in the deadliest documented mass killing the area has ever witnessed," the Sudanese Doctors Network, a volunteer group, said in a statement.

"We consider this mass execution a war crime and a crime against humanity. We call on the international community to act urgently to save the remaining civilians and to open safe corridors to allow them to leave Al-Salha, which is home to thousands of unarmed civilians," it added.

Meanwhile, the Central Resistance Committees of Al-Salha, another volunteer group, also reported the killing, saying that the militia abducted unarmed civilians from the area and executed them.

"Available data suggests that the number of civilians killed exceeds 30," the group noted.

The Emergency Lawyers Initiative, a third volunteer group, also condemned the killing, calling it "a brutal crime and a grave violation of all international conventions, amounting to war crimes and crimes against humanity."

Videos shared by soldiers wearing RSF uniforms showed detainees sitting on the ground before being shot. In the footage, one soldier was heard saying, "We will leave no prisoners anymore."

The RSF currently controls the Al-Salha area, situated in southern Omdurman, which has seen frequent clashes between the Sudanese Armed Forces (SAF) and the RSF. The RSF has not yet responded to the allegations.

Sudan has been mired in conflict between the SAF and RSF since mid-April 2023, a war that has resulted in tens of thousands of deaths, with the exact toll unknown.

The International Organisation for Migration estimates that the conflict has displaced over 15 million people, both within Sudan and abroad.

2 terrorists killed in SW Pakistan security operation

The operation was conducted in Derakshan area of the provincial capital Quetta, a CTD official told Xinhua. An exchange of gunfire took place during the operation, in which one terrorist was shot dead by security forces, while the other detonated an explosive device, killing himself, the official said.

Following the encounter, CTD personnel recovered a suicide vest and a large cache of weapons from the scene.

The official said the terrorists were planning major attacks in the province, but swift and timely action by CTD forces foiled their plot.

Bessent says US may clinch first trade deal with India

Washington, April 28 (UNI) : One of the first US trade agreements may be with India, Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent said on Monday.

"I would guess that India would be one of the first trade deals we would sign," Bessent told CNBC.

He recalled that US Vice President JD Vance visited India last week and talked about substantial progress in the talks.

Bessent also pointed out that the US has very good negotiations with other partners in Asia.

"I have mentioned that the negotiations with the Republic of Korea have gone very well, and I think we've had some very substantial negotiations with our Japanese allies," he added.

Vance said on Tuesday that the US and India had finalized the terms of reference for the trade negotiations, adding that very good progress had been made during his talks with Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

Vance also said that in February, US President Donald Trump and Modi announced plans to more than double bilateral trade to $500 billion by the end of the decade.

Philippines raises alert on volcano southeast of Manila

Manila, April 28 (UNI) : Philippine authorities on Monday raised the alert level for Mount Bulusan after the volcano in Sorsogon province, southeast of Manila, spewed a dark plume 4.5 km into the sky.

The Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology raised the alert level from zero to one on a scale of five, or from normal to low-level unrest, after a phreatic eruption occurred at 4:36 a.m. local time, which lasted 24 minutes.

"The event produced a bent plume that rose 4.5 km above the crater before drifting west to southwest," the institute said in an advisory, adding that ashes blanketed villages around the volcano.

The institute said the volcano produced "rumbling sounds" approximately 15 minutes before the eruption.

The institute warned of "chances of phreatic eruptions," urging villagers to be vigilant and prohibiting them from entering the 4 km danger zone of the volcano.

The institute also advised pilots and civil aviation authorities to avoid flying close to the volcano's summit.

There are 24 active volcanoes in the Philippines. Aside from Mount Bulusan, Mount Mayon in Albay province and Taal volcano near Manila are on alert level 1, while Mount Kanlaon is on alert level 3, or magmatic unrest, meaning there's an increased chance of a hazardous eruption, including explosive activity, lava flows, and pyroclastic density currents. Located in the Pacific "Ring of Fire" region, the Philippines is prone to volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, and powerful typhoons.

Boat crash in U.S. Florida leaves 1 dead, 12 injured

New York, April 28 (UNI) : A private boat crashed into a ferry in the U.S. state of Florida on Sunday night, leaving one dead and 12 others injured.

The Clearwater Police Department confirmed the death of one person from the ferry, which had more than 40 people on board at the time of the collision.

"All of the injuries are from the ferry. The boat that struck the ferry fled the scene," said local police in a social media post.

The ferry came to rest on a sandbar just south of the Memorial Causeway bridge, and all patients and passengers have been evacuated, according to the post. The local fire department declared it a mass casualty incident due to the number of injuries, prompting multiple trauma alerts and the airlifting of two seriously injured individuals by helicopter.

The U.S. Coast Guard and Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission will handle the crash investigation, said the Clearwater Police Department.

43 Palestinians killed in Israeli attacks across Gaza: Civil Defence

Gaza, April 28 (UNI) : At least 43 Palestinians were killed in Israeli attacks across the Gaza Strip, the enclave's Civil Defence said on Sunday.

Civil Defence spokesperson Mahmoud Basal told Xinhua that eight people, including three children and a woman, were killed when Israeli aircraft struck a tent housing displaced persons near Hamad City, northwest of Khan Younis, in the southern Gaza Strip.

In another attack, an Israeli airstrike killed five Palestinians and wounded several others, some seriously, in Deir-al-Balah in central Gaza, Basal added.

He also reported that six people were killed and 20 others injured in an Israeli airstrike on a cafe near the entrance to the Nuseirat and Bureij refugee camps in the central Gaza Strip.

Basal said that at least four children were killed in an Israeli drone attack on a gathering of children in the town of al-Zawayda in the central Gaza Strip.

Eight people, including three children, were killed when Israeli aircraft targeted a gathering of Palestinians in the Tuffah neighborhood, northeast of Gaza City.

At least 12 Palestinians were killed in Israeli air and artillery attacks on several homes in the Shuja'iyya, al-Zeitoun, and al-Tuffah neighborhoods, east of Gaza City, according to Basal.

The Israeli army has not commented on these incidents yet. Since Israel resumed its military campaign in Gaza on March 18, at least 2,151 Palestinians have been killed and 5,598 others injured, bringing the overall death toll in Gaza since the war began in October 2023 to 52,243, with 117,639 people injured, according to health authorities in Gaza on Sunday.

Death toll from Iran's port blast reaches 65

Tehran, April 28 (UNI) :

The death toll from a huge blast and the subsequent fire at Shahid Rajaei Port in the southern Iranian province of Hormozgan on Saturday has reached 65, with over 1,200 others injured, the semi-official Mehr news agency reported Monday, citing the provincial governor.

The fire has been completely contained, while the rescue and relief operations were still ongoing, Mohammad Ashouri Taziani told Mehr.

Earlier in the day, Iran's Interior Minister Eskandar Momeni identified "certain negligence" as one of the reasons behind the deadly explosion in the provincial capital Bandar Abbas, where this port, the country's largest maritime hub, is located.

He made the remarks in an interview with state-run IRIB TV, elaborating on the ongoing investigations to determine the cause of the incident. Momeni said that during an earlier meeting held in Bandar Abbas to discuss the explosion's cause, several individuals whose negligence had been confirmed were summoned.

He noted that a failure to observe safety regulations and passive defense measures properly contributed to the disaster, urging the relevant authorities and investigative committee to accelerate efforts to determine the full cause accurately.

Following the deadly blast, Hossein Sajedinia, head of Iran's National Disaster Management Organization, told the IRIB on Sunday that some of the containers at the port contained flammable materials, such as pitch, and some others carried chemicals.

Despite the incident, the port's wharfs have resumed operations and cargo handling, according to the official news agency IRNA.

11 confirmed dead in Vancouver festival

Ottawa, April 28 (UNI) : A total of 11 people have been confirmed dead after a driver drove into a crowd at a street festival in Vancouver, Canada, on Saturday evening, said the police on Sunday. The Vancouver police said in a news conference that the number of dead could rise as dozens more are injured, some seriously. Interim Vancouver Police Chief Steve Rai said the victims include both male and female, with "very young people" among the dead.

The driver does have a significant history of interactions with police and with "health-care professionals related to mental health," Rai said.

"This is the darkest day in Vancouver's history," said Rai. The tragedy happened shortly after 8 p.m. (0300 GMT) near East 43rd Avenue and Fraser Street where the Lapu Lapu Day Block Party was going on.

Local media reported that a black SUV struck individuals who were either walking or waiting near food trucks, leaving multiple victims lying on the ground.

The suspect, a 30-year-old Vancouver man, was arrested at the scene. An investigation is ongoing.

Canadian Prime Minister Mark Carney expressed his shock, saying in his social media account: "I am devastated to hear about the horrific events at the Lapu Lapu festival in Vancouver earlier this evening. We are monitoring the situation closely." Vancouver Mayor Ken Sim said: "I am shocked and deeply saddened by the horrific incident at today's Lapu Lapu Day event. We will work to provide more information as soon as we can." Named after a Filipino indigenous leader who fought against Spanish colonization in the 16th century, Lapu Lapu Day was officially recognized by the province of British Columbia in 2023 and is widely celebrated by the Filipino community in the province, where Vancouver is the largest city.

Israel rejects proposal for 5-yr truce with Hamas: state media

Jerusalem, April 28 (UNI) : Israel has rejected a proposal for a five-year ceasefire with Hamas, under which all Israeli hostages still held in Gaza would have been released, Israel's state-owned broadcaster Kan reported Monday. A senior Israeli official told local media that Israel "has officially rejected the proposal," according to Kan. "Some ideas are being floated by certain Arab states, such as a five-year halt to the war," the official said. "There is no chance we will agree to a 'hudna' (a temporary truce) with Hamas that would only allow it to rearm, recover, and continue its war against the State of Israel with even greater force." On Saturday, a Hamas delegation led by senior leader Khalil al-Hayya agreed in Cairo to release all Israeli hostages in exchange for a five-year truce, according to an Egyptian security source.

The last exchange of Israeli hostages and Palestinian detainees took place under a ceasefire that came into effect in January. Israel ended the ceasefire in March after about two months and resumed its deadly offensive in the Palestinian enclave. The renewed Israeli attacks have so far killed 2,222 Palestinians and injured 5,751 others, Gaza health authorities said Monday.

Lightning strikes kill 9 in Bangladesh

Dhaka, April 28 (UNI) : A series of lightning strikes in parts of Bangladesh killed nine people on Monday, media reports said.

Four deaths were reported in different areas of Cumilla district, three in Kishorganj district and one each in Sunamganj and Netrokona districts from dawn until noon on Monday amid heavy rain.

The majority of the lightning fatalities occurred in rural areas where people were working on their farmlands, Xinhua news reported.

Death due to lightning strikes is common in the densely populated South Asian country during this time of a year, as the weather changes from the dry season to the rainy summer season. The Bangladeshi government in 2016 declared it as a national disaster.

A total of 297 people including 242 men and 55 women died due to lightning strikes during the February-September period in 2024, Save the Society and Thunderstorm Awareness Forum (SSTF), a local organization, announced the death toll last October.

Experts claim that the surge in lightning strike deaths is attributable to climate change, which made the country more vulnerable to the impacts.

Israeli forces carry out airstrike on Beirut's southern suburbs

Beirut/Jerusalem, April 28 (UNI) : Israeli forces carried out on Sunday an airstrike on a building in Hadath area in Beirut's southern suburbs.

The "powerful strike" targeted "infrastructure where Hezbollah had stored precision missiles," Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu and Defence Minister Israel Katz said in a joint statement.

The missiles, according to the Israeli leaders, posed a "significant threat" to Israel's security.

Lebanon's National News Agency reported that Israeli warplanes launched three missiles, destroying a hangar and causing damage to nearby buildings and vehicles. No casualties from the strike have been reported yet.

In their statement, Netanyahu and Katz emphasized that Israel would not tolerate Hezbollah strengthening its capabilities or posing a threat to the country from anywhere in Lebanon. They also held the Lebanese government responsible for preventing such threats, saying it "bears direct responsibility" for Hezbollah's armament.

Ahead of the strike, Israeli Army Spokesperson Avichay Adraee issued an urgent evacuation warning via social media for residents of Beirut's southern suburbs, particularly in the Hadath district. "For your safety and the safety of your families, you are urged to immediately evacuate these buildings and move at least 300 meters away, as indicated on the map," Adraee said.

Lebanese President Joseph Aoun condemned the strike, saying that "the United States and France, as guarantors of the cessation of hostilities agreement, must assume their responsibilities and compel Israel to immediately cease its attacks."

"Israel's continued undermining of stability will exacerbate tensions and expose the region to real dangers that threaten its security and stability," he warned, adding that the frequent Israeli attacks "on Lebanon's sovereignty and territorial integrity are unacceptable under any pretext."

Despite a ceasefire that took effect on Nov. 27, 2024, aimed at ending 14 months of cross-border hostilities between Israel and Hezbollah, Israeli strikes have continued in southern Lebanon and the Bekaa Valley. According to Lebanon's state-run National News Agency, Israeli bombings and shootings have killed 149 people in Lebanon since the truce, while the United Nations reported on April 15 that 71 of the dead were civilians.

Useful flooring tips

Dark floors can be intimidating for some but it is one of the easiest ways to give a large room a chic makeover.

When dark works best
If you have a high ceiling and walls that are tall, dark floors are ideal. Very large rooms can benefit from the grounding effect that a dark floor has.

Helps disguise dirt
Spills, stains, hair, pet fur and dirt are friendlier with dark flooring. It works for bathrooms and kitchens too. It can be a blessing for the working busybee and also for the lazy ones, who can't find time to clean up too often.

Adds character
Dark hardwood floors add immense character to a large room. It is popular with celebrities and business tycoons. They have the incredible ability to embrace all kinds of decor schemes.

Floor and furniture
You could choose to have light-coloured furniture for a dramatic effect. If needed, use a rug that helps to provide this contrast.

Modern furniture that has the minimalist look, is great for dark floors.

Get your creative best for your

Child's room

Induce creativity:
Your bundle of joy needs to be gently nudged into a world of imagination and wonder. Grab his or her interest in all things creative and stimulating by infusing an element of magic, fantasy and popular kids' literature into their rooms. Think of bedsheets and pillows with cartoon characters, wall motifs that make them want to read fairytales and wall decals with famous animated movie figures.

Splash colours:
Most parents understand that a child's room must exude bright happiness in terms of the colour scheme. Yet many desist from undertaking the project of altering the way the room looks. This is because the traditional belief is that to spruce up the room, one has to invest in recolouring the walls. However, this isn't true. In fact, most contemporary designers believe that it's better to have the walls painted in a sober shade and splash vibrancy in other ways through upholstery, accessories, exuberant rugs, beanbags and lots of visually pleasing books.

Go natural:
Children love the outdoors and nature, and if you don't want them to end up as couch potatoes once they grow up a little, it will be best to encourage this feeling of oneness with all things natural. Boost their love for the wild by cleverly infusing quirky elements into their abode. Wallpapers that represent forests or mountains and ceilings with stars that shine in the dark usually work well. Wooden furniture and flooring best complement such a theme.

Create space:
When designing an interior scheme for your baby's room, it's essential to keep in mind that he or she needs a lot of space. If you have one room for two children, a bunk bed is a great idea. Not only do children find it cool and fun, it also makes way for an activity area. Just spread a funky carpet, scatter a few toys here and there and the perfect playroom is ready. Your little princess can also lay her Barbie set here and delve into her beautiful world of fantasy.

From splashing colours to going natural -- you can use your creativity to make your child's room a true fairyland.

Create a container Garden in your home

A container garden is a great way to utilise the space in your house and also add greenery. This is how you can do it...

Map the area where you want to make the garden

Since this type of a garden can make your home look cluttered, always select one specific area in your house where you would like to have it. This can be a space, either in your living area, your balcony or a place in your dining room. Go for plants that can sustain for a long duration. Mostly built indoors, choose plants that can survive with minimum or no sunlight for days at end. However, you must remember to water them from time to time, so that they remain fresh.

Go for bright blooms

Instead of going in only for green plants, you can also opt for flowers in bright colours — marigolds, lilies, etc are good options. They not only add to the beauty of the room, but also lend a calming effect. Make sure you choose flowering plants that are not seasonal.

Do not opt for too many planters

Build the garden in such a way that it does not overpower your room. Since you also have to maintain uniformity, having about three to four planters placed side by side will make the garden look complete. This will also lend a neat look to your room and the plants will have enough breathing space.

Place them on faux grass

To give the garden a more authentic look, you can have the planters placed on fake grass. If you are planning to do this in your bedroom, make sure that you choose an area (possibly near the windows, so that your plants can get sunlight). You can alternatively also use pebbles for non-flowering plants that need less water to keep them clean.

When it comes to locating plots, buildings, orienting homes, placing decor and even planning gardens the first thing which would come to our mind is unhindered flow of energy and a feel good factor.

Designing homes the Feng Shui Way

This is quite possible when we plan our home keeping in mind some important tenets of Feng Shui in terms of decor, alignment and design. The adaptation could extend beyond the framework of building design as it can be used to enhance the interiors, furnishing, decor and other aspects of the design elements in a space. A simple approach to Feng Shui would be in terms of providing the right plot levels, set backs, proper layout and allocation of rooms. How do we go about this? The basic understanding to allocate rooms in the right sectors is a step after getting to know the interpretation of the magnetic fields and compass directions. Presuming that one has got to know the axis of the plot and located the cardinal magnetic directions, it becomes a lot easier to design a home as per Feng Shui tenets. Some of the very generic rules in Feng Shui home design are:-
Main door: The main door should be the largest door in the home and the door should not open into a kitchen area. Moreover the position of the main door is critical and would vary depending upon the direction and axis of the plot, however doors right on the cardinal directions are considered bad positioning.
Kitchen: What we eat, where we eat and how we eat are all part of the science of health and vitality; hence kitchen location is vital to the overall harmony of the home. Kitchen as many elements which operate in tandem or could be conflicting like water, fire (stove /electricity), metal (utensils) etc. In addition locating the stove and sink is of great importance so having the water body away from the fire is quite important.

Master bedroom: This is one of the most important rooms in a home. It is said that deep sleep is when we reunite with the source, hence if we sleep deeply we awaken refreshed ready for the new day. Quality of sleep is far more important than the length of time. Certain locations are more conducive to peaceful sleep than others. Using wooden bed/cot is preferred as wood is benign and warm as against metal beds, which are cold and oppressive, and metal is said to be associated with the planet Saturn.
Living room: This room is the sanctuary for relaxation. Feng Shui treatises says that the centre portion or the 'tai chi' of the house is not conducive for major activities as it receives least amount of cosmic energy, hence it is beneficial if a major portion of the living room occupies the central zone of the building. Remember to orient your sofas and heavy furniture's such that they occupy the south and west sectors of the room and avoid furniture or blockages at the northeast sector of the room which is the knowledge sector.
Toilets: In the earlier days the toilets were away from the main house and later they were made 'en-suite' or attached. Toilets should not be too close to kitchen as the food energy and toilet energies are incompatible. Feng Shui reminds us of the basic relationship between earth, man and cosmos. By adapting these principles our lives, we can create a healthy environment with harmonious living and working environment.

Jamshedpur FC beat NorthEast United in Kalinga Super Cup quarter-finals after sudden death

Bhubaneswar, April 28 (UNI) : Jamshedpur FC secured a hard-fought semi-final spot in Kalinga Super Cup 2025 after edging NorthEast United FC 5-4 in a dramatic quarter-final penalty-shootout at the Kalinga Stadium here.

The match had ended in a stalemate after regulation time, forcing a nervy penalty shootout that went into sudden death on Sunday Night.

Khalid Jamil's men showed great composure under pressure, even after Jordan Murray and Stephen Eze missed during the initial set of five penalties. NorthEast United had their own share of troubles, with Guillermo Fernandez and Michel Zabaco missing their early attempts.

Despite rallying to tie the shootout at 3-3, NorthEast faltered in sudden death when Asheer Akhtar skied his shot, while Ashutosh Mehta and Lazar Cirkovic converted for Jamshedpur.

The win sets up a semi-final clash between Jamshedpur FC and Mumbai City FC on April 30, at 8 pm IST.

The match itself was a tactical battle, with both coaches adopting a cautious approach from the outset. With attacking threats such as Alaaeddine Ajaraie, Nestor Albiach, and Guillermo Fernandez for NorthEast, and Javier Hernandez Gonzalez, Javier Siverio and Jordan Murray for Jamshedpur, defensive discipline was paramount.

The first half saw few clear-cut chances as both sides focussed on closing down space and maintaining shape. The first notable opportunity came for NorthEast United in the 15th minute, when Ajaraie's thunderous free-kick from 32 yards was palmed away by Albino Gomes, ensuring the scores stayed level.

Jamshedpur also had their moments, with Hernandez and Siverio linking up well, but they failed to seriously trouble Gurmeet Singh in the NorthEast goal.

The pattern continued in the second half, with both teams struggling to break down stubborn defences. Jithin MS came closest for NorthEast with a well-struck volley from 21 yards that whistled just past the post, while Siverio and Murray were repeatedly denied by Gurmeet's safe handling.

Substitutions were made by both managers to try and inject fresh impetus, but they largely failed to influence proceedings, and the stalemate persisted until the final whistle.

In the resulting shootout, it became a test of nerves. After the early misses from both sides, the tie-breaker was forced into sudden death. Thoi Singh Huidrom briefly kept NorthEast United's hopes alive with a composed finish, but when Asheer Akhtar blazed his effort over the bar, Jamshedpur had the last laugh.

Stephen Eze was presented the Kalinga Player of the Match award by Dr. Saswat Kumar Rout, Officer on Special Duty, Sports and Youth Services Department, Government of Odisha.

Proteas embark on World Cup preparations with India challenge in tri-series

Colombo, April 28 (UNI) : Proteas captain Laura Wolvaardt is in high spirits ahead of their opening game against India on Tuesday in the ongoing tri-series.

While South Africa will be playing their first fixture in the tournament, India secured a dominant nine-wicket victory over hosts Sri Lanka on Sunday to kickstart their campaign.

"We've had some good prep. We had some camps during the last couple of months where we did scenario-type stuff to replicate the game time that we didn't have. Hopefully, we're able to start tomorrow on the right foot," Wolvaardt told reporters on Monday.

The tri-series marks the first assignment for Mandla Mashimbyi after being appointed as the new head coach of South Africa Women, as the team begin their preparations for the ICC Women's Cricket World Cup 2025, set to take place in India later this year, an ICC report said.

"It's our first full tour with Coach Mandla. So far, he's been great. He's come with a big presence, already implemented a lot of changes, and does things differently to what we've maybe done in the past. I hope it'll be good for the group going forward," she said. The Sri Lanka tournament feature three sides, which Wolvaardt believes is an exciting opportunity as it replicates the atmosphere and pressure of a World Cup.

"A tri-series like this is great. It sort of gives a World Cup kind of feel where you have to prep for different teams in the same tournament and hopefully qualify for a final," she said.

"I think we have a bit of everything with the ball, which is awesome. It's probably the most spinners that I've had in a squad since I've been captain, so I'm quite excited about that," Wolvaardt said.

India walk into the contest with recent ODI results against the Proteas Women in their favor, having won 18 out of their last 31 matches. However, South Africa have had a positive buildup, with their preparations in Sri Lankan conditions proving to be hugely beneficial, believes captain Laura Wolvaardt.

"It's been a good few days (in Colombo). We mainly used the time to get used to conditions and the heat, especially," she said.

"It's been very hot and humid here, a lot different to what we're used to at home, where it's a bit cooler at the moment," Wolvaardt said. "The cricket conditions as well, getting used to the ground, and spending some time in the nets has been good, and we are ready to go tomorrow," she added.
